

THE NEW SUNSHINE DEALS

Not only have we found the most glamorous getaways, we've negotiated VIP discounts on your behalf. Get that holiday form in now!

1. CUT-PRICE CARIBBEAN CHIC

If it's a fly-and-flop destination you're after, this ticks all the boxes. With direct flights from the UK, Barbados is one of the easiest Caribbean islands to get to, and The House, set on a stretch of pristine white beach on the calmer west coast, is one of its smartest hotels. Think effortlessly chic rooms, champagne breakfasts and sundown canapés – laid-back and luxe at its best. ITC Classics is offering Grazia readers nearly 25 per cent off the cost of a five-night stay at The House – making it £1,370 per person instead of £1,785. That includes accommodation in a Garden View Junior Suite plus breakfast, BA flights from Gatwick and transfers. As an added A-list treat, they'll also throw in a free Champagne Sunset Cruise for two, worth US$360 (£182). Grazia deal: nearly 25 per cent off + free sunset cruise. Valid for bookings made by 31 July 2008, for travel up to 30 November 2008. Book on 01244 355527, quoting ref 114168.

2. BARGAIN HOLISTIC RETREATS IN PORTUGAL

Keeping fit by pounding away in the gym: boring. A fitness holiday on the Algarve: altogether more appealing. Purescapes offers week-long 'health retreats' on a lush 40-acre Portuguese farm estate, with a holistic approach that takes in everything from hiking the hills and cruising the coast to consultations with nutrition and exercise experts. For Grazia readers only, it is offering a fabulous discount of 30 per cent on all their Portugal retreats until October 2008 – so, based on two sharing a double room, the price per person will be €1,603 (£1,261) instead of the usual €2,290 (£1,801). That includes seven nights' accommodation and transfers (flights not included), all organic meals and drinks, group activities, one-on-one training, nutritional analysis, yoga, qigong and a relaxing one-hour massage. Grazia deal: 30 per cent off. Book on 020 3239 9670 or via the website, www.purescapes.com (where you'll find details of retreat dates), quoting 'Grazia Summer Deal'.

Luxe
for less

3. CHILLING ON THE CHEAP IN THE MALDIVES

When sheer escapism is what you're after, Cocoa Island in the Maldives will deliver in spades. An uber-stylish private-island sanctuary – and the Indian Ocean outpost of Christina Ong's COMO Hotels and Resorts group – it offers all the powder-white sands and gin-clear seas you could ask for. The resort is offering Grazia readers seven nights in a Dhoni Suite for the price of five – $3,450 (£1,747) per suite for a week instead of the usual $4,830 (£2,445), based on two sharing (including breakfast; excluding service charge, tax and flights). It will also throw in a free couple's massage worth $240 (£122). Grazia deal: nearly 30 per cent discount + free massage. Valid for travel 1 July-31 August 2008. Book at www.cocoaisland.com.bz, quoting 'Grazia Summer Deal'.

